According to Manufactured Housing Institute data, industry home shipments through May 2023 are down 29.0% year over year. However, housing affordability in the U.S. continues to deteriorate and retail traffic in our industry is accelerating. Loan applications at our company-owned retail stores hit a 12-month high in July 2023. We continue to focus on sales and cost management, and we recently closed a new Revolving Credit Facility which provides additional flexibility to pursue growth opportunities."
